WELCOME TO MIKUMI NATIONAL PARK

Mikumi National Park, is compared to the other National Parks and Game Reserves in South Tanzania, relatively small, 3,230 Sq km, with the nickname "Small Serengeti". The National Park is famous for having a great variety of animals and is home to four out of the famous Big 5, with only the Rhino missing. You will also find animals that are rarely found in other National Parks, such as the Sable Antelope, African Hunting Dog, Blue Wildebeest, Lichtenstein's Hartebeest. Only 5 km away from the entrance gate you will find the Hippo Pools, where the hippos and a great variety of water birds are the stars of the show. Not only the wildlife is a highlight of this National Park. You will also be amazed by its beautiful environment as this National Park is decorated by scenic plains and baobab trees, offering guests beautiful views while on game drive.

Only a 45 minute flight from Zanzibar, in our 30 seater, 2 engine Embraer. A perfect air conditioned plane, built for getting you safely to the airstrip in Mikumi, where your safari vehicle will be waiting to take you on an unforgettable safari adventure.

DAY SAFARI MIKUMI NATIONAL PARK

MIK-01

After an early and short flight from Zanzibar, your driver and his safari vehicle are waiting for you to explore this little gem. The advantage of being a relatively small park, will be noticed after a few minutes drive, when you will meet your first wildlife. A bush lunch as a welcome break, and a late afternoon flight back, completes your safari day.
